

The Mission of the Goshen Community Relations Commission

The CRC serves Goshen by developing programs and policies that aim for a city without racism or discrimination of any kind, and build capacity for creative problem solving, resiliency, understanding, and compassion among the diverse people in our community.

The Goshen Community Relations Commission is committed to following these principles:

- Honor the dignity of each person and each person's rights
- Listen to the diverse voices of the community
- Constructive communication and engagement
- Honesty, truthfulness, and integrity
- Promote a community that is safe for all
- Acknowledge and accept the challenge of change—that it may have both positive and negative consequences
- Promote the acceptance of differences
- Promote equality and freedom from discrimination

Adopted August 8, 2019

Old vs New

CRC Mission

Old	2019
Our mission is to foster a climate of positive community relationships and non-discrimination in which all Goshen citizens enjoy equal opportunity for education, employment, and access to public conveniences, accommodations and real property.	The CRC serves Goshen by developing programs and policies that aim for a city without racism or discrimination of any kind, and build capacity for creative problem solving, resiliency, understanding, and compassion among the diverse people in our community.

CRC Principles:

Old	2019
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Respect for each other and respect for each other's rights● Open communication and engagement● Honesty● A safe community● Acceptance that change has positive and negative consequences● Tolerance of differences● Support for equality and freedom from discrimination	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Honor the dignity of each person and each person's rights● Listen to the diverse voices of the community● Constructive communication and engagement● Honesty, truthfulness, and integrity● Promote a community that is safe for all● Acknowledge and accept the challenge of change—that it may have both positive and negative consequences● Promote the acceptance of differences● Promote equality and freedom from discrimination